

ASHA Recognition and Networks

Eileen Crowe

Director, State Association Relations
ASHA

CSAP Conference
Friday, May 18, 2013

Disclosure Statement

- ▶ Financial Relationship: ASHA employee
- ▶ Nonfinancial Relationship: None

What is ASHA Recognition?

- ▶ 52 ASHA recognized associations

ASHA Recognition

- ▶ How often do states renew their recognition?

ASHA Recognition

- ▶ Constitution and/or bylaws
- ▶ The official purpose(s) of the SSLHA, if not specified in the constitution and/or bylaws
- ▶ SSLHA's membership requirements, if not specified in the SSLHA's constitution and/or bylaws or other such document
- ▶ SSLHA's code of ethics or a statement that the SSLHA has adopted the ASHA Code of Ethics

ASHA Recognition

- ▶ SSLHA's nondiscrimination policy, if not specified in the SSLHA's constitution and bylaws or other document listed above

ASHA Recognition

- ▶ State Association Profile form, including the current names, addresses, and phone numbers of certain officers; annual meeting information; and governmental affairs information among other pertinent information

ASHA Recognition

- ▶ Affiliation agreement form

ASHA Recognition

- ▶ What happens after we update all of our documents?

ASHA Recognition

- ▶ Why should we renew our ASHA recognition?
- ▶ Is there any benefit to my state association?

Examples of ASHA Recognition Benefits

- ▶ Unlimited complimentary legislative and regulatory email blasts to ASHA members in your state
- ▶ For membership or conference promotion purposes:
 - One complimentary email blast or
 - One complimentary set of mailing labels
- ▶ ASHA grants and loans
- ▶ ASHA Board of Directors speakers, without travel costs, available for your conferences

Examples of ASHA Recognition Benefits

- ▶ Compensation, and other benefits from ASHA, when the ASHA Annual Convention is held in your state
- ▶ A single waived ASHA Convention registration for use by your SSLHA as a raffle prize or auction giveaway when ASHA's Annual Convention is hosted in your region (north, south, west, and central)
- ▶ ASHA staff to present at SSLHA conventions without the need for an honorarium

ASHA Networks

- ▶ What are the names of the three ASHA Networks?

ASHA Networks

- ▶ State Education Advocacy Leaders (SEALs)
- ▶ State Medicare Administrative Contractor (SMACs)
- ▶ State Advocates for Reimbursement (STARs)

ASHA Networks

- ▶ STARS– ASHA staff liaison
 - Laurie Alban Havens
 - lalbanhavens@asha.org

ASHA Networks

- ▶ SMACs – ASHA staff liaison
 - Mark Kander
 - mkander@asha.org

ASHA Networks

- ▶ SEALs–ASHA Staff Liaison
 - Eileen Crowe ecrowe@asha.org

